Mr. J. E. Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

For your information, on October 30, 1936, I visited with Mr. David C. Selznick, President of Selznick International Pictures, Inc., 9836 Washington Boulevard, Culver City, California. The occasion of my visit was in connection with the letters that had been received by his mother, Mrs. Florence Selznick. Mr. Selznick was most pleasant during this visit. He indicated his appreciation of the work that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has conducted during the past years, and was highly laudatory in his comments about you.

While I was in Mr. Selznick's office, he called in Mr. John Hay Whitney, who is the Chairman of the Board of Selznick International Pictures, Inc. Mr. Selznick presented me to Mr. Whitney, and at the time of the introduction stated to Mr. Whitney that you and the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been of much assistance to the motion picture industry in recent years, and that he wanted Mr. Whitney to know me, in the event that he would have any need for the services of the FBI.

Mr. Whitney then in turn stated that he had met you personally a few years ago on the occasion of a visit that he made to Washington. He stated that he visited with Mr. Lewis Douglass of the Treasury Department at that time, and that he made your acquaintance at Mr. Douglass' office. He said he had had a most pleasant visit with you, and he recalls that at that time you mentioned that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was anxious to assist anyone who received extortion letters, or communications threatening kidnaping, et cetera, and that he had not forgotten your statement in that respect. He indicated that he would be pleased to assist this Bureau at any time that he could.

I informed both Mr. Whitney and Mr. Selznick that I would convey to you their personal regards, and both stated they would appreciate very much my doing so.

Sincerely yours,

~~James~~ Fusca, a public relations man associated with the firm of Fusca and Krone, Incorporated, 527 Madison Avenue, New York City, advised on January 12, 1962, that he was personally acquainted with Anita Whitney who currently is living in Havana, Cuba.

The publication is "An Independent Socialist Magazine" with editorial and business offices at 333 Sixth Avenue, New York 14, New York, and mailing address at 66 Barrow Street, New York, New York, according to the March, 1961, issue of "Monthly Review." Its editors are listed as LEO HUBERMAN and PAUL M. SWEEZY.

LOUIS F. BUDENZ, former editor of the "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958, advised on June 23, 1950, that LEO HUBERMAN was a member of the CP in 1945.

Another source advised on November 2, 1954, that PAUL M. SWEEZY was known as a Marxist, but not as a Communist Party (CP) member. The same source stated that the CP hard core had been critical of SWEEZY because of his independent application of Marxist theory. According to the source, SWEEZY was used to advantage in many CP front activities in the 1930's.

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Re; Anita Whitney

Fusca advised that Anita Whitney was last in New York in late August or early September, 1960, as he took her to Idlewild Airport for her return to Cuba. Fusca advised that during the period of time that Anita Whitney was in New York during the summer of 1960, she several times was in the need of money and would call Carlos Romeo in Havana, Cuba, for funds. Fusca stated that Anita Whitney was instructed by Romeo to go to the offices of the "Monthly Review" and pick up the money there which he would cable to her from Havana.

Fusca stated that on one occasion he accompanied Anita Whitney to the offices of the "Monthly Review" to pick up her money.

Fusca advised that sometime during the latter part of 1960 he had spoken to Eileen Earnest who informed him that Anita Whitney was now happily married to Carlos Romeo and was residing in Havana, Cuba. During conversation with Eileen Earnest, Eileen Earnest informed Fusca that Carlos Romeo was a Chilean who was closely associated with Major Ernesto "Che" Guevara.

James Fusca further advised on January 16, 1962, that he did not know the identities of the parents of Anita Whitney but stated that they were related to the well-known Whitney family.

Fusca stated that he was positive of the fact that Anita Whitney was the niece of John Hay Whitney, owner of the New York "Herald Tribune" and the former United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James under the administration of Dwight D. Eisenhower. WJ

Re: Anita Whitney

Concerning James Fusca and the Public Relations firm of Fusca and Krone, it is to be noted that at the present time they are doing public relations work in the United States for the Cuban Families Committee for the Liberation of Prisoners of War, Incorporated.

A characterization of the "Monthly Review" mentioned above is to be found in the Appendix attached hereto.

Concerning CASTRO, mentioned above, it is noted that FIDEL CASTRO is presently Prime Minister of Cuba.

Re: Anita Whitney

Fusca advised that after Anita Whitney broke up with "Josh" Reynolds she went to Havana, Cuba and stayed there with a wealthy American woman named Eileen Earnest. Fusca stated that Eileen Earnest was married to a well to do accountant from New York and had a residence at Varadero Beach, in Havana, Cuba and it was her custom to spend her vacation there every year.

B. APPROX.

Fusca stated that during May or June, 1960, he met Eileen Earnest through Anita Whitney who had returned to New York. Fusca described Eileen Earnest as a woman in her late 40's, married to a wealthy American who has a residence at 69 West 9th Street, New York City, and a summer residence at Fire Island, New York.

Fusca stated that Eileen Earnest is a pseudo-intellectual who spends money freely on liberal causes and considers herself to be a Communist or a very liberal thinker. Fusca stated that, in his opinion, Eileen Earnest was not a Communist because she does not have the intelligence to be one.

Fusca stated that through conversation with Eileen Earnest and Anita Whitney during May and June, 1960, he ascertained that after Eileen Earnest left Varadero Beach, Anita Whitney then lived with various individuals in Cuba, whose identities were unknown to Fusca. However, Fusca stated that through Eileen Earnest he ascertained that Anita Whitney became very close to Carlos Romeo, a Chilean Economist who is an assistant to Major Ernesto "Che" Guevara, who is currently the Minister of Industries for the Castro government of Cuba.
